The Message of Aquaria Aldergrove, B.C. : Fresh Wind Press

When Evangelist Edward Charles Murrell asked a young man if he were saved, the man said he was thinking about it, but two questions were bothering him: Where did the dinosaurs come from, and where did Cain get his wife? Over the next 30 years, Murrell searched for answers to those questions and more. In Out of the Depths, Murrell looks at the Bible and more obscure works, such as The Second Book of Enoch and Life of Adam and Eve, to answer questions about the heavens and the three worlds God created: The world of giants, which God the Father made for his son Satanail, who fell from grace The world of Adam, whom God created to be the door for Jesus to come through to redeem the world The world of Noah — our world — which God promised not to destroy by flood again Murrell offers some surprising answers. He shares how giants came into being, explains how the dinosaurs died, identifies Jesus as the archangel Michael, and explains God's power to change women into sons of God.

Eerdmans Dictionary of the Bible Rivers from Eden If Brad Jersak's 'Can You Hear Me?' primed your heart for listening prayer, this forty-day spiritual exercise will help make it a lifestyle. Walk with Eden and Brad Jersak as you present God with 40 life-changing questions and receive God's answers. These encounters will lead you to new depths of hearing God's voice and seeing God's face. 'Rivers from Eden' is designed to help readers make 'listening prayer' a lifestyle. It models an approach to prayer in which your time spent with God becomes an intimate, interactive meeting. The premise, laid out in detail in 'Can You Hear Me?', is that all of God's children can learn to hear his voice (Job. 33:14, John 10:27) and see his face (Heb. 12:2, 2 Cor. 4:6). When the eyes and ears of your heart are opened, prayer becomes a real meeting with a living friend. Rivers from Eden An alphabetical reference with more than 1,500 entries that trace symbols to their cultural, religious, or mythological origins, and explain the hidden or encoded meaning that lies concealed beneath objects' and concepts' ordinary, outward appearance.

Genesis 1-11:26: The Christian Standard Commentary Harvest House Publishers

Take time each day to read and commune with God. The Bible says, "Instead, they find joy in obeying the Law of the Lord, and they study it day and night." (Psa 1:2 GNT) The "instead" refers to the choice we have to pursue the good things God has for us, as opposed to the things of this world that will only lead us into trouble. The word we translate to "study", or "meditate" in some versions, is the same word translated as "ruminate". As a cow chews its cud it ruminates, swallowing and then coughing it back up to chew some more. Therefore, as we study, and meditate, on God's Word we are effectively chewing it over and over again as a cow chews its cud. This process helps in digesting food as the cow gains every little bit of nutrient from it. In this volume, the fourth in the Rivers of Eden series, you will find a deeper perspective for your walks in the garden. More spiritual food to chew on, if you will. Every day, for the next 100 days, you will continue to experience a connection with God through the opening Scripture reading. Then you will be introduced to Rev. Noggle's experience in his Christian walk, along with occasional references to many of the Scholars who have been pivotal in Rev. Noggle's life. And your prayer time as you close out the session will bring you into a new light in Jesus Christ. That is Rev. Noggle's prayer for you. Enjoy!

Christianity abounds with fascinating, little-known trivia. Gas station attendants, for example, enjoy their own patron saint. So do stamp collectors, truss makers and sailors in the Bolivian navy. Jesus and Judas were common names in the biblical period, and Jesus of Nazareth had a brother named Judas. The forbidden fruit was more likely an apricot than an apple, and Delilah hired a barber to cut Sampson's hair. This dictionary of miscellany combs the annals of Christian esoterica, offering the most intriguing facts that are often forgotten, overlooked or ignored.

Departing from the standard subject matter, this work serves as an unruly companion to the typical Bible dictionary. Nearly 1500 entries range from Aaron's beard (a popular name for Saint John's wort) to zounds (an antiquated Christian swear word).

Information is cross-referenced and includes numerous quotations.

Were you left scrambling for an answer? In Defending the Faith, Henry Morris presents the evolutionary and Bible-compromising arguments for the origins of the earth and universe — then reveals their many flaws through sound evidence and logic. This book will prepare you to refute, both scientifically and biblically, evolutionary claims as well as “Christian” concepts such as the gap and day-age theories. Equipped with such knowledge, you will “be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you” (1 Peter 3:15).

When Jude wrote his Epistle, he implored believers in all ages to be diligent in their defense of the faith. And the faith clearly was, and is, belief in Jesus Christ as Creator and Redeemer. So just as Solomon assured us that there is nothing new under the sun, we're not surprised that there are attacks on the gospel today; Jude was just as familiar with these enemies of the gospel in his time. Now, author Henry Morris offers up a brand-new look at these age-old attacks on the faith, tackling a breathtaking range of issues, from science and the Bible to liberal criticisms of the Bible. A powerful weapon in the battle for truth, Defending the Faith doesn't shrink from the fight, but rather speaks the truth in love.
