The Costwolds' town of Stourton-on-the-Hill has its very own cat cafe. Resident cat Molly, and her kittens, live here in feline paradise, while owner Debbie serves the locals home-made goodies. But even in the most idyllic surroundings, things don't always go to plan . . . When Debbie's heartbroken sister Linda arrives at the cafe, Debbie insists she move in. But Linda is not alone, and the cats are devastated with the arrival of Linda's dog, Beau. Sadly, Beau's arrival is not the only bombshell - now Molly's home is also under threat when a rival cat moves in on her turf. With Christmas approaching, Molly is unsettled, barely roused by the promise of tinsel to play with. Fearing for her feline family she hopelessly stares out of the cafe window searching for an answer. Only a Christmas miracle could bring everyone together . . .
 Christmas at the Cat Cafe is a wonderfully festive story, from the author of Molly and the Cat Cafe.

"Cilka is just sixteen years old when she is taken to Auschwitz-Birkenau Concentration Camp, in 1942. The Commandant at Birkenau, Schwarzhuber, notices her long beautiful hair, and forces her separation from the other women prisoners. Cilka learns quickly that power, even unwillingly given, equals survival. After liberation, Cilka is charged as a collaborator for sleeping with the enemy and sent to Siberia. But what choice did she have? And where did the lines of morality lie for Cilka, who was sent to Auschwitz when still a child? In a Siberian prison camp, Cilka faces challenges both new and horribly familiar, including the unwanted attention of the guards. But when she makes an impression on a woman doctor, Cilka is taken under her wing. Cilka begins to tend to the ill in the camp, struggling to care for them under brutal conditions. Confronting death and terror daily, Cilka discovers a strength she never knew she had. And when she begins to tentatively form bonds and relationships in this harsh, new reality, Cilka finds that despite everything that has happened to her, there is room in her heart for love. From child to woman, from woman to healer, Cilka's journey illuminates the resilience of the human spirit -- and the will we have to survive."--

The Crocodile Fury Tin House Books

A classic novel in the tradition of The Tin Drum, The Sorrow of Belgium is a searing, scathingly funny portrait of a wartime Belgium and one boy's coming of age -- emotionally, sexually, and politically. In 1939, Louis Seynaeve, a ten-year-old Flemish student, is chiefly occupied with schoolboy adventures and lurid adolescent fantasies. Then the Nazis invade Belgium, and he grows up fast. Bewildered by his family -- a stuffy father who actually welcomes the occupation and a flirtatious mother who works for (and plays with) the Germans -- he is seemingly at the center of so much he can't understand. Gradually, as he confronts the horrors of the war and its aftermath, the eccentric and often petty behavior of his colorful relatives and neighbors, and his own inner turmoil, he achieves a degree of maturity -- at the cost of deep disillusion. Epic in scope, by turns hilarious and elegiac, The Sorrow of Belgium is the masterwork by one of the world's greatest contemporary authors. Book jacket.

Over de serie: "Ik wil jullie mijn levensverhaal vertellen. Althans, dat van een deel van mijn leven. Een deel van mijn leven dat mij nog toebehoort, maar verstopt is. Mijn seksleven. Hetgeen waarvoor ik gemaakt ben. Wat ik het beste kan." De wereld zit vol mannen, en de eerste persoonsverteller in deze serie is een vrouwelijke Don Juan, die simpelweg geen nee kan zeggen. Eva houdt van haar man en kinderen, maar voor haar is dat niet genoeg. Haar leven is betekenisloos zonder de spanning van een nieuw avontuurtje, dus wanneer de kans voor een erotische ervaring er is, pakt ze die. De vrouwelijke protagonist van de serie, Eva, is geïnspireerd op een echt persoon van vlees en bloed. De auteur Anna Bridgwater heeft na gesprekken met deze vrouw haar verhaal opgeschreven als een getuigenis over het geheime leven dat ze leefde naast haar man en kinderen. Anna Bridgwater heeft haar master in literatuur en is freelance journalist en auteur. De serie "De Intieme Bekentenissen" is haar literaire debuut.

The Hidden Force (A Story of Modern Java), (Dutch: De Stille Kracht), is a novel by Dutch novelist and poet Louis Marie-Anne Couperus and was originally published in English in 1922, as translated by Alexander Teixeira de Mattos. The work is a story set on the island of Java in the Dutch East Indies, where the author Couperus was raised, telling the story of Van Oudijck the commissioner of an area of East Java, who quells a rebellion through his deft verbal skills. The commissioner is however wholly oblivious to the supernatural "hidden forces" on the island, and the tensions within his own household, both of which plague him throughout the work. The Hidden Force tells the story of Javanese-Dutch politics, urban life, colonial bureaucracy, and supernatural forces on a foreign island, which was later adapted into a Dutch TV series in the 1970s, and has been marked for adaptation by renowned director Paul Verhoeven.

The Hidden Force Rosetta Books

The #1 New York Times—bestselling author's "groundbreaking" work on women's sexual fantasies (Publishers Weekly). First published in 1973, My Secret Garden ignited a firestorm of reactions across the nation—from outrage to enthusiastic support. Collected from detailed personal interviews with hundreds of women from diverse backgrounds, this book presents a bracingly honest account of women's inner sexual fantasy lives. In its time, this book shattered taboos and opened up a conversation about the landscape of feminine desire in a way that was unprecedented. Today, My Secret Garden remains one of the most iconic works of feminist literature of our time—and is still relevant to millions of women throughout the world. "The author whose books about gender politics helped redefine American women's sexuality." —The New York Times Brinkman's catalogus van boeken en tijdschriften Hachette UK On passing through a certain curtain and a certain door, pleasure, pain and titillation could be enjoyed in the company of ladies who returned the virile salute of desire with the same enthusiasm in which it was given. They wielded power over men, whether in domination or submission, and embraced the exquisite surrender of being watched by many eyes. Lord MacCaulay becomes obsessed with the mysterious Mademoiselle Noire, despite suffering the ultimate humiliation at her hands. His pursuit of her brings about a descent from which there may be no escape. The novella unfolds through a series of fantasy tableaux scenes (explicitly sexual) with an underlying theme of obsessive love.

Love in a Time of Loneliness Penguin Classics

The first essay, "The Impossible Couple", is both a humorous and razor-sharp analysis of the contemporary relationship between man and woman. In the second essay, "Fleeing Fathers", the author demonstrates that today the Freudian Oedipus complex has disappeared, with a resulting shattering of classic gender roles. Post-modern morals are strange compared to previous morality, because they convey an obligation to enjoy. Things become even stranger when one finds that the expected enjoyment fails to come and, instead of that, we are faced with boredom, anxiety, and anger. The author reconsiders the opposition between Eros and Thanatos as an opposition between two forms of sexual pleasure. The fact that this opposition is ever present in heterosexual love demonstrates that gender differentiation goes beyond temporal cultural forms. Accessibly written and provocatively argued, Love in a Time of Loneliness is a polemic whose very informality belies its serious intent. In these three fascinating essays, The author leaves the ordinary paths of thinking and sets out to discover what drives us in sex and love.
