A história de um amor proibido num país mergulhado na ditadura salazarista. Portugal, 1964.

Salazar proibia a Coca-Cola, a censura amordaçava escritores e a PIDE prendia inocentes. Beatriz e Rodrigo apaixonam-se. Ela, de educação católica e membro da Mocidade Portuguesa Feminina. Ele, um defensor da liberdade e crítico do regime. Em plena ditadura, havia apenas uma regra no que tocava às relações: não se apaixonar pela pessoa errada. Quarenta e cinco anos mais tarde, o neto de Rodrigo abre um cofre fechado durante décadas e encontra as cartas de amor trocadas entre os dois. Descobre a história de uma paixão impossível, que tentou sobreviver às pressões sociais de um país mergulhado nas trevas do regime salazarista. A política de Salazar obrigou à separação dos dois amantes, mas nunca conseguiu matar o amor que os unia. Poderá ainda haver um final feliz, ou será tarde demais? Entre o ambiente de Lisboa nos anos sessenta, a guerra em África e o retrato de uma sociedade governada pelo medo, o autor, com base numa história real, escreve um romance emocionante e comovente a que nenhum leitor ficará indiferente.

Trübner's American and Oriental Literary Record John Wiley & Sons

This edited volume is a sequel to, and a development of, The Long Aftermath: Cultural Legacies of Europe at War, 1936-2016 (2016). It focuses on the six major European countries and states that remained officially neutral throughout the Second World War, namely Ireland, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, and the Vatican. Its transnational, comparative and interdisciplinary approach addresses complex questions pertaining to collective remembrance, national policies and politics, and intellectual as well as cultural responses to neutrality during and after the conflict. The contributions are from a broad range of scholars working across the disciplines of history, literature, film, media, and cultural studies. Their thought-provoking chapters challenge many assumptions about neutrality in the post-war European and global context, thereby filling a gap in the existing scholarship. Common themes that run through the volume include the intertwined and dynamic links between neutrality and moral responsibility during and after the Second World War, the importance of memory politics and popular culture in shaping collective memories, and the impact of the Holocaust in shifting traditional perspectives on neutrality since the 1990s. This volume will be of interest to undergraduates, postgraduates, scholars interested in the field of memory studies, as well as non-specialist readers.

International literary market place Editorial Sigal

Trata-se como é referido no subtítulo de uma conjugação de esforços de pesquisa e de interpretação comum de historiadores portugueses e brasileiros que, antes de mais, se insere no âmbito de um programa de comemorações científicas do centenário República em Portugal, a que a experiência brasileira ocorrida em 1889 não foi de todo estranha. Depois há o destaque de duas problemáticas essenciais ao republicanismo aquém e além mar que são a afirmação do Progresso político e económico e as interações do religioso com a utopia reformista republicana e positivista, bem como o ataque laicista à Igreja Católica apostólica e romana. O estudo destas problemáticas por especialistas com provas dadas conferem um valor inestimável ao projeto editorial e torná-lo-ão um título de referência obrigatória em Portugal e no Brasil.

Gateway communities that neighbour parks and protected areas are impacted by tourism, while facing unique circumstances related to protected area management. Economic dependency remains a serious challenge for these communities, especially in a climate of neoliberalism, top-down policy environments, and park closures related to environmental degradation or government budgets. The collection of works in this edited book provide bottom-up, informed, and nuanced approaches to tourism management using local experiences from gateway communities and protected areas management emerging from a decade of guidelines, rulemaking, and exclusive decision-making. Newsletter of the Society for Spanish and Portuguese Historical Studies Imprensa da Universidade de Coimbra / Coimbra University Press

This book is the first work in the English language to discuss the participation of women writers in the narrative construction of Mozambican nationhood over the last half-century. Covering the rise of anti-colonial nationalism in the 1950s, the advent of the Marxist-Leninist Republic in the 1970s, the war that followed independence in the 1980s, and the transition to democracy and the neo-liberal economy in the 1990s, the volume focuses on four representative women writers who belong to distinct but overlapping periods and work in different genres. Dealing with Noemia de Sousa's poetry, Lina Magaia's testimonial writings, Lilia Mompote's short fiction, and Paulina Chiziane's novels, the result is a close reading of the ways in which women have narrated and counter-narrated Mozambican nationhood to take account of the gendered power relations that traditionally underpin national community as imagined by men.
