This book analyses regional expressions of the queer experience in texts available in the Indian vernacular languages. It studies
queer autobiographies
and literary and cinematic texts written in the vernacular languages on gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender issues. The authors outline the specific terms that are popular in the bhashas (languages) to refer to the queer people and discuss any neo coinages/modes
of communication
invented by the queer people themselves. The volume also addresses the lack of queer representation in certain language communities and the lack of queer interaction in non-metropolitan cities in India. An important contribution to the field of queer studies in India, this timely book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of gender studies, queer studies,
cultural studies,
discrimination and
exclusion studies,
language studies, political studies, sociology,

postcolonial studies and
South Asian studies.

No matter who you are,
where you live, or what your life circumstances are, if you've gone through the teenage, you
time you've fallen in love.
The time when you've created your own

universe in your mind.
The time when you used
only a smile can melt your heart and a whiff can cure all your pains. But then
some words, some feelings, some emotions.
do move on in life but something remains there for always. Some of them just feel those vibes and some of them make those moments immortal by penning down their heart
in form of poetries, writings and shayaris, in their diaries. The book is all about those feelings that are left unexpressed,
unspoken. Let's take this moment to celebrate the journey of our lives, and dive into some stories penned down by some
awesome co-authors.
