rouge... né en Amérique. Tatiana et Alexandre se rencontrent pendant l'été 1941, le jour où l'Allemagne de Hitler déclare la guerre à l'Union soviétique de Staline. Ils s'aiment au premier regard, d'un amour absolu, et interdit : lié par un terrible secret, Alexandre est promis à la sœur aînée de Tatiana. Ensemble, Tatiana et Alexandre affronteront tous les dangers de cette guerre qui va bientôt précipiter leur ville dans l'horreur, la famine, la peur, le froid, la mort... Et une épreuve bien plus cruelle : la trahison ou le mensonge, le dilemme déchirant d'un amour impossible. Si vous avez dévoré Les oiseaux se cachent pour mourir ou La Bicyclette bleue, vous adorerez Tatiana. Whatever Next? Editore Foco Una delle donne più influenti, ammirate e creative dei nostri tempi: fashion designer, filantropa, moglie, madre e nonna, Diane von Furstenberg rivela come è diventata la donna che voleva essere. Una storia sorprendente che ripercorre l'infanzia a Bruxelles e i suoi giorni di bambina, le feste sfrenate allo Studio 54 di New York negli anni '70 dove amava presentarsi da sola, con gli stivali da cowboy, il breve, appassionato e turbolento matrimonio col principe Egon von Furstenberg, fino allo straordinario successo come stilista con il suo wrap dress. Un abito semplice e geniale, facile da indossare, sexy ma non troppo vistoso, disegnato quarant'anni fa, che ha cambiato il modo di vestire delle donne e che sfida il tempo e l'evoluzione delle mode, visto che sono ancora in tante a portarlo, da Michelle

Obama a Amy Adams nelle scene di American Hustle. Con estrema onestà e saggezza, Diane von Furstenberg indica il difficile percorso che bisogna intraprendere per diventare una donna, «una donna che sia indipendente e che non debba mai dipendere da un uomo per pagare le bollette». Lei ci è riuscita. Ha realizzato i suoi sogni, ha vissuto le sue fantasie, ha avuto quello che voleva. E non ha paura di raccontare la sua vita voltandosi indietro. Il ritratto coraggioso e affascinante di una persona determinata a ritagliarsi un'identità tutta sua e che, dopo aver raggiunto l'obiettivo, si dedica ad aiutare giovani donne affinché ognuna di loro sappia che può diventare la donna che vuole essere. Itinérantes Karat Media, LLC

Throughout their chapters the authors find themselves at one or more crossroads in life that required them to make adjustments in their direction while staying centrally true to themselves. Despite challenges and obstacles ranging from childhood to adulthood, each author demonstrates how to make the most of any pivot. The Ten Toes Down series was created by Trey Ford, who is dedicated to assisting others create, build and expand any vision or idea. This project is personal for Trey as he continues to create platforms for the arts and serve in the community. He believes that standing Ten Toes Down is the only way for success. The frank and compelling story of an extraordinary woman and her adventures in fashion, business, and life. "Most fairy tales end with the girl marrying the prince. That's where mine began," says Diane Von Furstenberg. Von Furstenberg lived the American Dream before she was thirty, building a multimillion-dollar fashion empire while raising two children and living life in the fast lane. Her wrap dress, a cultural phenomenon in the seventies, hangs in the Smithsonian Institution; her entry into the beauty business in 1979 was as serendipitous and as successful. Von Furstenberg learned her trade in the trenches, crisscrossing the country to make personal appearances at department stores, selling her dresses and cosmetics. That business had its ups and downs, as the fashionista entrepreneur's unparalleled success became the source of its own undoing and she contended with bankruptcy, the loss of her business, and finally a complete self-reinvention that took her back to the top of the industry. This revealing and contemplative memoir works to make sense of the contradictions of the author's life: glamour vs. hard work, European vs.

American, daughter of a Holocaust survivor vs. wife of an Austro-Italian prince, mother vs. entrepreneur, lover vs. tycoon. She emerges wiser, stronger, and ever more determined never to sacrifice her passion for life.

Jewish family's desperate attempts to lie low in a Nazi-dominated World War II France. Having emigrated from Budapest and Warsaw respectively, Nathalie and Ladislas Gara originally came to Paris to seek the university educations that their Jewish religion barred them from in their home countries. However, in 1940, they found themselves once again fleeing from persecution, this time at the hands of the fledgling Vichy regime in France. The couple, with their daughter Claire, were among a group that eventually found precarious shelter in a village in the Ardèche, Saint-Boniface, taking advantage of the region's reputation as a land of refuge, which has seen it for generations taking in religious exiles amongst its folded hills and isolated farmsteads.

Come the end of the war, the Garas published a thinly concealed account of their time as refugees. The village of Saint-Boniface itself takes center stage at a meeting of worlds which creates scenes by turn tragic and comic. The intellectual, artistic, and working classes, fleeing from the cities, clash with the rural population, and the resulting human stories, recounted with humor, satire, and pathos, lay bare the powers and the limitations of both groups.

 In this charming and poignant memoir, the 13th Earl Ferrers - 'a farmer who got caught up in the slipstream of politics' - reflects on a life very well lived. Alongside contemplative musings on politics, religion, relationships and the meaning of life are humorous anecdotes - on his aristocratic upbringing at Staunton Harold in the 1930s, high jinks at Winchester and Cambridge, national service in the jungle of Malaya and his time as minister in every Conservative Government from Macmillan to Major. Drawing on nearly sixty years of public service, Whatever Next? recounts captivating tales of the ups and downs of Westminster life - including choice nuggets of original correspondence, cartoons and poems - from a peer with a real twinkle in his eye.

One of the most influential, admired, and innovative women of our time: fashion designer, philanthropist, wife, mother, and grandmother, Diane von Furstenberg offers a book about becoming the woman she wanted to be. Diane von Furstenberg started out with a suitcase full of jersey dresses and an idea of who she wanted to be—in her words, “the kind of woman who is independent and who doesn’t rely on a man to pay her bills.” She has since become that woman, establishing herself as a global brand and a major force in the fashion industry, all the while raising a family and maintaining “my children are my greatest creation.” In The Woman I Wanted to Be, von Furstenberg reflects on her extraordinary life—from childhood in Brussels to her days as a young, jet-set princess, to creating the dress that came to symbolize independence and power for an entire generation of women. With remarkable honesty and wisdom, von Furstenberg mines the rich territory of what it means to be a woman. She opens up about her family and career, overcoming cancer, building a global brand, and devoting herself to empowering other women, writing, "I want every woman to know that she can be the woman she wants to be."
