New Interchange is a multi-level series for adult and young-adult learners of English from the beginning to the high-intermediate level.

Workbook A has six-page units that follow the same sequence as the Student's Book A. Workbook A contains units 1-8, the first half of the complete Workbook. It has interesting grammar, vocabulary, and writing activities, appropriate for classwork or homework. It also has numerous reading passages that recycle and review language from previous units.

Ventures 2nd Edition is a six-level, four-skills, standards-based, integrated-skills series that empowers students to achieve their academic and career goals. It offers a wealth of resources providing instructors with the tools for any teaching situation. Easy-to-teach materials make for a more productive classroom.

Nonfiction Readers: Fluent Assessment Guide

Cambridge University Press

For the past two years, Achieve, Inc. has worked with the Transition Mathematics Project (TMP), a collaborative project of K-12 schools, community and technical colleges, and baccalaureate institutions within the state of Washington, as it developed mathematics standards that "define the core knowledge and skills expected of students entering college-level mathematics courses and courses with quantitative components." As part of its work with the TMP, Achieve was asked to assess the alignment between a sample of college placement tests used by Washington's state postsecondary institutions and the College Readiness Mathematics Standards (CRMS) recently completed by the TMP. Three sets of placement tests were submitted for alignment analysis. The four-year institutions-- Central Washington University, Eastern Washington University, Western Washington University, the Washington State University System, and the University of Washington--submitted two placement tests, the Intermediate Mathematics Placement Test (IMPT) and the Advanced Mathematics Placement Test (AMPT). Big Bend Community College submitted two levels of their mathematics placement test, Form 1A and Form 2A. Whatcom Community College submitted four mathematics placement tests: Basic Mathematics, Beginning Algebra, Intermediate Algebra, and Pre-Calculus. A review team comprised of two Achieve consultants confirmed the mapping of the items for each test, took each test, and then rated each item against the component or learning indicator to which it was mapped using four criteria-- "Content Centrality," "Performance Centrality," "Source of Challenge," and "Level of Demand." Achieve's major findings from this analysis are as follows: The CRMS developed by the TMP partnership involving K-12 educators, postsecondary educators, and the business community suggest a broader and richer view of what is needed for future success in postsecondary mathematics than is defined in the placement tests used to place students into entry-level college mathematics courses. Overall, the placement tests examined as part of this study do an insufficient job of assessing the CRMS developed by the TMP. Some components and learning indicators in the CRMS are written in ways that made it difficult to tell whether test items are entirely consistent with the articulated expectations. Appended to this report are: (1) Alignment Analysis for Big Bend Community College;

(2) Alignment Analysis for Washington Public Universities; (3) Alignment Analysis for Whatcom Community Colleges; and (4) Biographies of Achieve, Inc. staff and content experts. New Interchange Workbook 2A University of Michigan Press ELT Ventures is a six-level, standards-based ESL series for adult-education ESL. The interleaved Teacher's edition walks instructors step-by-step through the stages of a lesson. Also included are suggested times for exercises, teaching tips, expansion activities, cultural information, and ways to expand a one-hour lesson to fill two or three instructional hours. The CD-ROM contains reproducible activities for individual, pair, and group work; tests; and audio for tests. Research in School and College Personnel Services Cambridge University Press Addressing the growing concerns about reading, math, and writing skills of freshman-level students, this volume provides different perspectives and approaches to the assessment of basic academic skills in higher education. The book provides an in-depth investigation into the Texas Academic Skills Program (TASP). More generally, the book provides insights into the construction of testing programs and their evaluations. The development and implementation of testing programs is discussed by outstanding educators involved and will be of great value to program administrators, policymakers, deans and faculty members of colleges, state legislators, and educational professionals working directly with institutions of higher learning. Beast Academy Guide 2A Oxford University Press - Children This book describes language testing practices that exist in the intermediate space between large-scale standardized testing and classroom assessment, an area that is rarely addressed in language testing literature. Drawing empirical research on a variety of languages, the volume discusses local language tests' ability to represent local contexts and values, explicitly and purposefully embed test results within instructional practice, and provide data for program evaluation and research. Although local testing practices have been grounded in the theoretical principles of language testing, the authors in this volume supplement the theoretical content with practical examples of how local tests can be designed to effectively function within and across different institutional contexts.

New Interchange is the second edition of Interchange, one of the world's most successful English courses for adult and young adult learners at the beginning to intermediate levels. New Interchange incorporates suggestions from students and teachers using the first edition from around the world. It offers more comprehensive grammar presentation and practice, more opportunities to develop listening skills and build fluency, as well as fresh new content in every unit. New Interchange features high-interest topics, a focus on both accuracy and fluency, and a multi-skills syllabus integrating themes, structures, functions, vocabulary, and pronunciation. The underlying philosophy of the course is that language is best learned when used for meaningful communication. New Interchange is written in American English, but reflects the fact that English is the major language of international communication, and is not limited to any one country, region, or culture.
