Adventures in Revelation is written especially for young readers. While it is biblically sound, it details the Second Coming of Jesus Christ in a format that youth and adults can comprehend. Without a doubt, children have questions about the end times. They want to know about the rapture, the tribulation, and eternity. They question if Jesus is really coming back. What about heaven and hell? Will they be subjected to the scary things that they have heard about? They ask if babies will go to heaven, and on and on the questions go. Find answers to these and other questions as we tour the heavens with the beloved disciple John. Adventures in Revelation is filled with pictures and interactive moments to assure the readers that their salvation is secure in Jesus. Throughout the book, the young readers are encouraged to give their lives to the Lord if they have not already done so. They are assured that Jesus loves them more than anything in the world and that once they know who they are in Christ, they will have no fear of the Book of Revelation and discover the many blessings and promises found in the Word of God.

Lectio divina is Latin for divine reading. The Lectio Divina for Youth books are Bible studies that call students to slow down, read Scripture, meditate on it, and prayerfully respond as they listen to God through His Word. These powerful books expand on the successful Barefoot Ministries' Ancient Faith Series. They work perfectly with either small groups or individual Bible study. Each Lection Divina for Youth Bible study incorporates the following approach: Reading (Lectio). Quietening ourselves prior to reading the Word. Meditation (Meditatio). We dig deep and explore the meaning of the Bible passage. Prayer (Oratio). We respond to God through praise, thanksgiving, confession, and agreement. Contemplation (Contemplatio). We come to a place where we rest in the presence of God and receive what He has said to us. Each chapter ends with a set of group study questions. Questions are designed for students to think about and discuss what it means to live out the Word in their community. Revelation: Lectio Divina for Youth takes students through the Apostle John's Revelation. Readers will meditate on John's prophetic vision, seeking understanding and wisdom as they listen to God's voice through this fascination block of Scripture.

Since Bible days, there have been 2 types of worship. One type of worship brought senseless pain and required worshippers to abuse and inflict pain upon themselves, even to the point of blood. The second type of worship originated on Mount Zion in the holy city of God. The worshippers there worshipped the Living God. They found that serving God brings joy, not pain. Do you want to learn how to receive the blessings of the Living God? Do you want to worship Him? When you worship the Living God, you can receive His seal. When you are sealed by the Living God no one will be able to see it on your body, but with it, you will be able to live a life that is pleasing to Him and beneficial to you. Prophets, church leaders, advisors, teachers, and parents all talk and teach about the importance of studying the scriptures. Why is studying the Scriptures so important? - Studying the scriptures is important because of the covenants we have made. - Studying the scriptures is important because of the direction we need in our lives. - Studying the scriptures is important because scripture study is a preparation for and prerequisite to receiving personal revelation. These are three doctrinal reasons why studying the Scriptures is so important. Knowing this, first of all, no prophecy of Scripture comes from someone's own interpretation. For no prophecy was ever produced by the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit (2 Peter 1:20-21). The Bible isn't an easy book. It was written by God in ancient times through people of different languages and cultures than our own, whose immediate audiences were different from us in many ways. It's also a book written by God about God and the work he's doing in the world. A work by such a divine Author, on such an immense topic, should be difficult to fully comprehend. So we need to study and wrestle with God's word and understand its worth in our lives. The book, ""Bible Study for Youth"" will surely help many young people to live a Biblical, Christ-centered and Victorious life.
