Facing Love Xlibris Corporation

Jesus calls each of us to live in a way that gives the Father glory, shares his love with everyone around us, and reflects the life of Jesus. He invites us to scatter seed. Scattering seed can be a challenge, though, especially in our public lives, our professional lives, and volunteer lives. Those of us called to teach in some way feel the challenge deeply. We seek to share knowledge, experiences, and life lessons with a broad and varied group of people and do it in a way that shares Christ's love. Often life, curriculum challenges, and student chemistry threaten to derail our best laid plans. When this happens, it's easy to be distracted from our purpose or even to forget that our life calling is the same as our calling to teach. Scattering Seed in Teaching is about returning to that call, or perhaps connecting with it for the first time. It shares stories, interviews, and observations of teachers and students learning about scattering seed. It connects with biblical reminders and encourages us as teachers to reflect on and remember that underlying our professional call to teach is our life call . . . they are one and the same, to scatter seed.

God loves you just the way you are, but he refuses to leave you there. He wants you to be just like Jesus. Can you think of a better offer? In Just Like Jesus, pastor and bestselling author Max Lucado reminds us that being just like Jesus feels like an impossible goal until we accept one simple truth: God loves us. Jesus felt no guilt He doesn't love us and leave us alone; he loves us enough to live within us, making our hearts his home. But doing so requires a bit of sprucing up, remodeling, refurbishing. Why? Because he wants us to have a heart like his too. Just Like Jesus will teach you how far God will go to transform us into his likeness. Along the way, Max addresses questions that might arise as you examine the peaceful, passionate, and pure heart of Christ, including: How do we know that God wants us to be made in his image? How does this change occur? If God wants me to be just like Jesus, why do I still seem just like me? In Just Like Jesus, Max gives you the tools you need to better understand God's gracious gift of transformation and restoration, so you, too, can start to live Just Like Jesus.

songwriter, and playwright, with new found love and appreciation for the performing arts. Margaret is the wife of Pastor Paul G. Mullings and the mother of four children.

The Ministry of the Word, Vol. 22, No. 5 WaterBrook

When a man speaks words against or in favor of another man, whether he knows it or not, he is speaking those very same words against or in favor of himself. The Bible tells us to do unto others the things that we would want done unto us or in our behalf. Well, that is the very same principle that God set down with words. What we say to others should be what we would want said to us. And whether we want them to or not they will come to pass in our lives. There is a law of nature that says that when you plant a seed you will, in time, reap a harvest. Just so, when you speak a word, since your word is a seed, you will reap a harvest. Given the right amount of time you will reap what you sow. Jesus said that if you had faith and you wanted that faith to grow plant it and it will grow. Jesus gave you seeds for whatever you need, they are called words. But you decide; are your words going to be good or bad? Either way they will grow and you will reap what you sow.

Many Christians spend a lifetime trying to figure out God's will for their lives: What career should I choose? Where should I live? Whom should I marry? God has told us his will for our lives: to be "conformed to the image of His Son" (Romans 8:29). Paul explains: We are to put off the old self and put on the new self "created to be like God in true righteous and holiness" (Ephesians 4:24). We cannot become more Christ-like in our own strength, though. Paul says the key is a renewed mind: "to be made new in the attitudes of your minds" (Ephesians 4:23). We exchange our patterns of thinking with God's Word. We fill our mind with Scripture, and slowly, we are transformed. Learning to think like Jesus helps us to act like Jesus. This is where Bible memorization comes in. We need to get God's Word into our heads and into our hearts. When I feel resentful and unforgiving toward my friend who betrayed me and am tempted to end our relationship, I replace my thoughts and hurt feelings with Hebrews 13:1: "Keep on loving each other as brothers." When I start to worry about my upcoming surgery or my children's college fund, I remind myself, "We live by faith, not by sight" (2 Corinthians 5:7). God's Word is living, active, and powerful. Having these verses in my mind and heart helps me to choose new Christ-like behavior. Here are fifty-two short Bible verses: Memorize one verse a week. Meditate on it daily. By the end of the year, you will see the transformative power of God's Word in renewing your mind and changing your behavior. As you are increasingly conformed to the image of Jesus, you will have the privilege of reflecting his love to the world.

So, Shall Thy Seed Be Christian Faith Publishing, Inc.

There are so many questions in our life that we could not get the satisfactory answers - Why do fossils occurred; why are human beings superior to other creatures; why do human beings speak different languages; what is the origin of idol worship; how giants existed in this world in the ancient times; who built huge structures like the Egyptian's pyramids; how did people go and live in secluded islands in the midst of vast oceans since ancient times; why didn't people invent modern machines and equipments since ancient times when human beings have no different brain structures; why did powerful empires - Egyptian, Babylonian, Persian, Grecian, Roman sequentially exist in this earth; why are Christmas traditions celebrated fervently both in the Christian world and non-Christian world. When God saved me, He gradually revealed the answers to the above questions directly and indirectly. He then inspired me to write down the answers in the form of a Book which reflected God's love story to save fallen human beings. In doing this, the war broke out between God and the power of darkness (Satan) who tried to prevent the Seed of the Woman (Jesus) from being born into this earth. In short, Satan tried to enslave human beings and keep the world under his control forever. But God's plan is superior to Satan's deceptive devices. God's plan to bring back saved human beings to a perfect life as in the days of the Garden of Eden would soon be manifested any time now

We all know that life can be hard, and working in the garden and trying to grow a garden is hard work. In our lives, if we want to grow spiritually closer to God, it takes work and effort in each of our hearts. The truth that God gives us is from his Word. It is the seeds that we need to plant in our lives and be willing to accept. The seed has to have water so it can grow. We need the active working of God in our lives so the truth can come alive in our lives. As we grow, we need be close to Gods will in our lives, in the light of His will for our lives, so we can continue to grow for him. As God prepares us to do his work, we must be rooted in the foundational truths that God has for us in his Word. Like a garden, we have to be aware of the dangers that come in and can contaminate our effectiveness for God. All the steps that we need to take so that we might be fruitful for God, to have a final product that is worthy before God when one day we meet him. I hope that you will take the journey and see that you too can have a beautiful garden for God.

A compassionate, shame-free guide for your darkest days "A one-of-a-kind book . . . to read for yourself or give to a struggling friend or loved one without the fear that depression and suicidal thoughts will be minimized, medicalized or over-spiritualized."—Kay Warren, cofounder of Saddleback Church What happens when loving Jesus doesn't cure you of depression, anxiety, or suicidal thoughts? You might be crushed by shame over your mental illness, only to be told by well-meaning Christians to "choose joy" and "pray more." So you beg God to take away the pain, but nothing eases the ache inside. As darkness lingers and color drains from your world, you're left wondering if God has abandoned you. You just want a way out. But there's hope. In I Love Jesus, But I Want to Die, Sarah J. Robinson offers a healthy, practical, and shame-free guide for Christians struggling with mental illness. With unflinching honesty, Sarah shares her story of battling depression and fighting to stay alive despite toxic theology that made her afraid to seek help outside the church. Pairing her own story with scriptural insights, mental health research, and simple practices, Sarah helps you reconnect with the God who is present in our deepest anguish and discover that you are worth everything it takes to get better. Beautifully written and full of hard-won wisdom, I Love Jesus, But I Want to Die offers a path toward a rich, hope-filled life in Christ, even when healing doesn't look like what you expect.

The Collected Works of Witness Lee, 1966, volume 1 Christian Faith Publishing, Inc.

Sandra Mosley introduces the birth of a seed. This is the story of her life and her faith in God, her early childhood and becoming an unwed teenage mother with two children, the heartbreaks she endured the pain, and the suffering that she went through as a young adult. This book brings to life the power of prayer and faith in God and the miracles that he will do if you only believe and have mustard-seed faith. After reading the story, hopefully, it will show how through all obstacles, there is the promise that God said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you." He can bring you from the deepest, darkest moment of your life and bring comfort to you. When you have lost loved ones in your life and you feel you cannot go on, this is where the power of prayer helps comfort you. As you continue the story, you will see God will send you a comforter to keep you, and you will also witness the miracles. With three cancers and the sudden death of her husband, you will see where the faith of a mustard seed kept her strong and wise. The love that she has for God is so powerful that she wants the world to know the joy that she feels in her spiritual walk with the Lord. The story will show that God has a plan for all of our lives. We must be able to accept and trust in him. Listen for that small, still voice that gives us directions. We will also continue to read to train our children to know God, read the scriptures, and follow the way of the Lord. He gives us so much, and he asks very little of us. May the blessings of the Lord be with all the readers.

The Enmity and the Victory, Or, The Appointed Enmity Between Both Seeds, and the Victory Turning in Favor of the the Seed of the Woman ... Christian Faith Publishing, Inc.

Some Christians have not read much of the Bible and therefore are unaware of the information in it given to us by God. I have met many people who believe the Bible is just a book of rules or laws to be followed and a list of the punishments for those who do not follow them. This is the furthest thing from the truth. The Bible is actually full of information about the wonderful things God will do for those who love and follow Jesus. This book is a collection of statements in the New Testament that specifically reveal the good things Jesus will do for those that love and follow him. The good things that Jesus will do for his followers are divided into three sections in this book. First, Jesus does many good things for the people that follow him. An example of this is Jesus will remove and eliminate the sins of his followers. This both makes them righteous before the eyes of God, and it allows them to enter heaven when they die. God also answers their prayers and gives them help in their daily lives. Next, Jesus does good things to his followers. While they are still on earth, the Holy Spirit enters them and their soul comes alive, a term called "born again." The Holy Spirit living inside a follower of Jesus progressively transforms that person into acting like Jesus if that is what that person wants in his or her life. Additionally, the Holy Spirit gives that person strength, wisdom, and guidance to do God's will on earth. Once a follower of Jesus dies and goes to heaven, the remaining transformation of that person is spectacular. We are transformed into something equivalent to, yet different from, the angels. In heaven, we will be adopted children of God the Father and actual brothers and sisters of Jesus Christ. We will receive all of the benefits of being an immediate family member of God's family. Finally, there are good things God does through people that love and follow Jesus. While on earth, we are God's children, conducting work in his family business as his personal ambassadors to the rest of the world. With our cooperation, the Holy Spirit inside us uses us as instruments to do his will in positively impacting and helping the rest of his children on earth. As you will see, God in the Bible promises wonderful things for those that love and follow him.

How to Grow Your Heart'S Garden for God Christian Faith Publishing, Inc.

Grounded in the Word of God and the events of history, JanEgil Gulbrandsen's latest books, Who Jesus Is and Jesus Is Israel, challenge the traditional Evangelical and dispensationalist understanding of eschatology and the person of Jesus Christ Himself. After years of personal Bible study, reflection, and prayer, Mr. Gulbrandsen realized that an objective reading of the Word of God demands an acknowledgement of Christ as Saviour and judge of Israel, and of the significance of the events in Jerusalem between 65 and 70 AD. When these events are placed in the context of Christ's purpose and words in the Gospels and the book of Revelation, only one conclusion can be reached. Well organized and clearly written, JanEgil Gulbrandsen's latest work will provide many "a-ha" moments to clergy and laity alike. It is a book to be approached with an open mind and an open Bible.

The Life and Words of Christ AuthorHouse

Jesus said, "...for this cause I came". He came to die for our sins. If Jesus had not done what He was sent to do, then He could not set captivity free. In other words, Jesus said I go to prepare a place for you. Anif I go to prepare a place for you, I will come again, and get you so you will be with me always. Accept a corn of wheat falls to the ground and dies it remains alone. You see, if Jesus had not died to atone our sins, we would remain unfit for the Kingdom. Because no whoremonger, adulterer, fornicator, drunkard, nor idolater will see Heaven. No, absolutely no sinner will see the Kingdom of God. Jesus said I must go first and make ready a place for you in my Father's house where there are many mansions. And after I have accomplished that, I will come back for you and take you back with me and we will spend eternity together. Jesus is the seed that fell from the Master's hand. The sower, who is the father and the husbandman, sows the seed which is the Word of God. The word then becomes flesh and dwells amongst us and we behold the only begotten Son of God full of glory whose name is the word of God. A seed alone in your hand will only stay a seed. But if you sow that seed, plant that seed. You will then see that seed produce and bring forth a harvest that will give birth to a multitude of seeds. And now that seed that was alone in your hand is no longer alone. It is surrounded by a family of other seeds just like itself. Accept the seed falls to the ground and dies it will remain alone. Jesus, who is the seed's purpose for falling to the earth, was to die. He didn't come to earth to go back to heaven alone. He's coming back to get this Church who will be without spot or wrinkle.

When you read this book, keep in mind it is about you, the reader, and those who are called to be sons of GOD. It is about planting His living seed word from the written page into our born again fertile heart and letting the Spirit of GOD raise us up just like He did with Jesus Christ. If the true Spirit of GOD is not in residence in your heart, you can still read the stories in the Bible from cover to cover and build your natural knowledge about the times and events in the Old and New Testaments. However, it takes the Spirit of GOD to give you the spiritual understanding that will guide you deeper in your daily walk. 1 Cor. 10:11, "Now all these things happened to them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come." 1 Cor. 1:18, "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but to us which are saved it is the power of GOD." This is the power to change us into the new creature we were created to be before the foundation of the world. 1 Cor. 2:14, "But the natural man receives not the things of the Spirit of GOD: for they are foolishness to him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." Let us plant this seed word into our hearts and wait for the Spirit to give us His spiritual understanding so we can mature into this new creature we were called to be in Christ Jesus.

We know that God works through His Word. That is how He created everything, by His power released through His Word. God's Word is a carrier of the life and power of God that can affect every aspect of our lives. God has given us His Word and seeks to work in us through the power of His Word. He has also revealed to us how to receive His Word so that the life and power contained in His Word is released into us causing His supernatural work to take place in us. While it is true that God by the power of His Holy Spirit will demonstrate His work in spectacular ways, with signs and wonders, we must not forget that God also works by His Word. Many believers miss out on the supernatural work of God, that God desires to release through His Word, because they keep seeking the spectacular. This book unveils for us simple truths that will help us receive and experience the supernatural power of God released in us through His Word, the miracle seed. Scattering Seed in Teaching Xulon Press

The Book of Revelation (chapter 12) narrates a phenomenon that most readers will find incredible. Given a view of a period of time in Heaven, Apostle John saw and reported: "Then war broke out in Heaven; Michael and his angels went forth to battle with the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought." He actually saw Archangel Michael and His army of Angels in all out war against a dragon; and the Dragon and his Angels fought back. However, the Dragon and his Angels did not prevail: they were defeated and violently cast out of and down from Heaven: "And the huge dragon was cast down and out that ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan, he who is the seducer (deceiver) of all Humanity the World over; he was forced out and down to the Earth, and his angels were flung out along with him." Further, the Warriors who vanquished this huge dragon called the Devil and Satan: "And they have overcome (conquered) him by means of the blood of the Lamb and by the utterance of their testimony, for they did not love and cling to life even when faced with death [holding their lives cheap till they had to die for their witnessing]." This was a War in which the armaments were the blood of the Lamb and by the utterance of their testimony This was a War of Words! This War would continue on Earth. After the Fall of Man, the War on Earth between the Two Seeds would be a War of the Spirit Beings; fought through Human Beings, and other living things, to the detriment of those who make the wrong choices during the battles to Save the World of Man! How did it begin and how will it end? This is one question every Believer is, literally, dying to know. So did Prophet Daniel (12v8): "And I heard, but I did not understand. Then I said: O my lord, what shall be the issue and final end of these things? The issue and final end of these things become evident as we trawl through Holy Scriptures and the histories of Man, as has been attempted in the 800 pages of this book.

Have you ever thought of the significance of the promise of God towards our patriarch Abraham. Have you ever thought of God showing Abraham the stars of heaven and asking Abraham to 'Tell the stars'. Have you ever thought of how the significance of this promise points towards the coming of the seed Jesus Christ into your own life. Have you ever thought of the nature of this seed being analogous to descriptive nature of stars of the heaven. How does God relate the descriptive nature of the stars to the magnitude of His glory in His son Jesus Christ. The invisibility of God from creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse Rom 1: 20 As you read this book, you will receive great insight and confirmation of this scripture in your life. This book will give you a clearer understanding and enlighten your vision of the very essence of the seed of eternity. I pray your eyes of understanding will be enlightened with the spirit of wisdom to see and enable you capture your position in Christ and Christ's position in your faith, in order to sharpen the magnitude of God's love and vision towards you and His plan and purpose of calling you into this faith.
