"Look out for number one." "I have to do what's best for me." "You only live once." These common phrases represent the mind-set of a world where self-denial and self-sacrifice are uncommon even among believers. The message of Christ in You is in direct conflict with such a worldview. It offers instead a powerful and liberating message to contemporary Christians tainted and distracted by these contradictory instincts.

Are you living your best life or are fear, anxiety, worry, regrets, and resentment stealing your peace and joy? Are fear, self-doubt, and a low self-esteem keeping you from pursuing your desires and dreams? Do you feel a need for something to satisfy a void in your life, but you're not sure what it is? I invite you to come along with me on a journey to healing the brokenness that is keeping you from receiving all of the gifts our heavenly Father has given us to live an abundant life filled with peace, joy, and contentment. Learn to let go of false perceptions and negative labels about yourself and how to stop negativity before it influences your thoughts and actions. Uncover the beautiful, capable, worthy, and creative soul within yourself that is waiting to fully bloom so that you can run your best race. God has a wonderful plan for each of our lives and desires to help us find our purpose and destiny. We can let go of the past and confidently move forward into a wonderful new life with Christ through the healing of our souls and the renewing of our minds. My prayer is that this book will be a blessing to your life by helping you discover just how capable and wonderfully made you are!

Let Me Tell You about My Life Story and My Living Testimony Simon and Schuster

Living in the Blessing Many of us get on our knees and pray each night. We ask that God bless us with this, or that. We repent of our sins and ask forgiveness. I still pray each night and from time to time I'll find myself asking for a blessing. I usually find that God has already answered it because He knew what I needed before I did. I ask that God watch over those that are not as fortunate as I am. I know that people prayed for and are praying for me, so I feel that it's only right that I pray for others. I was thinking, which can be dangerous, as I was driving my new car. God's favor must be with me because I was able to buy it without a down payment, or giving a pint of blood, or losing an arm or a leg. I realized that I had just received a blessing, or should I say another blessing. I had been asking and praying for a blessing or some kind of sign from God. I had been asking for His favor and until that moment I hadn't realized that I had been LIVING IN THE BLESSING all along. I was alive and alert, I have family that loves and cares for me and not to put Him last, but I had The Lord. My life is good and I am living in a continuous blessing. What a blessing it was to find myself in a blessing. Some of you know just what I mean, others will find out soon. God does not forget or forsake His chosen people. We are those chosen people, you and I. Hallelujah this is why I write and praise the Lord the way I do. G. Stephen Hughes

God loves us so much that He constantly gives us opportunities in our lives to achieve the best. Putting this book in your hands is one of them. If you are looking for a change in your life, the experience narrated in this book will help to achieve the change that you desire. It is not a coincidence that God has sent this book to you. It is only the beginning of the plan that He has for you, and reading this book can help you to find the path to always achieve the best in your life. You are here on Earth for a purpose. Before the creation of the universe, God already had a perfect plan for you to have all your days on Earth fulfilled with happiness and welfare, as you glorify His Son, Jesus. God is waiting for you with open arms to guide you. The decision is yours.

Living in the Balance of Grace and Faith WorthyKids

On Jesus' final night before the cross, His passionate prayer was... "That they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me." - John 17:21 - Christ's ultimate desire on this last evening with His disciples was that they, and the world, would be "one" with Him. A perfect love relationship. Dust and Deity made one. Imagine Jesus asking you, "Do you love Me?" And you answer, "Love You? I have become You!" Be Jesus with "skin on" for the world to see Him. In Are You Living? Bjorn Stavness offers profound insights into the mystery of oneness through the scriptures and tackles painful issues in our lives such as fear, anger, depression, satanic strongholds, marital conflicts, physical and sexual abuse, and addictions.

When Jesus wasn't ministering to people, He was teaching the disciples how to do what He did. The Way to Follow the Way is a step by step instruction manual in learning to follow Jesus who is the Way, using the same methods He used to teach His disciples. Why do people struggle with their old sinful nature? What actually changes when you're born again? How do you receive everything you need for life and godliness? What were the final instructions of Jesus? These questions and many more will be answered with clear, concise and detailed information. It begins with why we believe in the God of creation, quickly explains the knowledge explosion Daniel prophesied would happen in the last days, then proceeds to the first steps a Christian takes and continues all the way through with how to make more disciples the same way Jesus did. After Jesus ascended back to Heaven and the disciples started to spread the Gospel, they went about praising God and enjoying the goodwill of all the people. And each day the Lord added to their fellowship those who were being saved. Wouldnt you like to have the ability to positively influence the people where you live?

Popular Bible teacher and host of the Gospel Truth broadcast, Andrew Wommack takes on one of the biggest controversies of the church, the freedom of God's grace verses the faith of the believer. Wommack reveals that God's power is not released from only grace or only faith. God's blessings come through a balance of both grace and faith. Addressing many of the misconceptions believers are taught in the Church today, this book opens up the Scriptures revealing the vital connection between grace and faith. Many believers think they walk in both grace and faith when actually they are misusing one or both of these principles. Wommack addresses: * Some believers willingly sin believing Gods grace will cover them, while the blessing of grace is not to sin, but to release guilt and condemnation when they make a mistake. * Other believers think they must "work" their faith by ritualistic prayer, confession, or Bible study. Although all these things are good, Jesus Christ set believers free from works of the law. God wants a relationship where He can communicate directly to each believer. * Grace and faith work together. When believers receive the unmerited favor or grace of God, they can release their faith without doubt or reservation and receive God's blessings. Andrew Wommack in his logical, practical style brings believers back on track in their Christian walk through living in the balance of grace and faith.

'Before Cliff Richard and the Shadows, there was nothing worth listening to in British music.' - John Lennon. Cliff Richard tells his story, in his own words, in his highly anticipated new autobiography. Achieving a hit in every decade since the 1950s, Cliff Richard stands alone in pop history. Coming of age in 1950s London, he began his music career at Soho's legendary 2i's Cafe, and now he's approaching his 80th birthday with record sales of over 250m and counting. Cliff Richard was a pioneer, forging the way for British rock 'n' roll with his unique sound. The original British teen idol, his incredible story takes us into the studio of TV's first pop show Oh Boy!, through 40 years of Top of the Pops, and playing live up and down the country and across the world, with a constant backdrop of screaming fans. Cliff looks back on his humble upbringing, and how he went on to fulfil his wildest dreams by becoming a pop star and even a film star. He talks about finding Christianity, reflects on the ups and downs of life in the public eye, and reveals how the false allegations against him changed his life forever. He's seen era-defining pop stars come and go, and he's still making new music, with a new project to be released this year. As a teenage Elvis-fan in Cheshunt, this may have seem a distant dream. Here's his story of how he made it all happen.

Explore this stunning quality of God's grace: It never ends! In this revision of a foundational work, John Piper reveals how grace is not only God's undeserved gift to us in the past, but also God's power to make good happen for us today, tomorrow, and forever. True life for the follower of Jesus really is a moment-by-moment trust that God is dependable and fulfills his promises. This is living by faith in future grace, which provides God's mercy, provision, and wisdom—everything we need—to accomplish his good plans for us. In Future Grace, chapter by chapter—one for each day of the month—Piper reveals how cherishing the promises of God helps break the power of persistent sin issues like anxiety, despondency, greed, lust, bitterness, impatience, pride, misplaced shame, and more. Ultimate joy, peace, and hope in life and death are found in a confident, continual awareness of the reality of future grace.

A compassionate, shame-free guide for your darkest days "A one-of-a-kind book . . . to read for yourself or give to a struggling friend or loved one without the fear that depression and suicidal thoughts will be minimized, medicalized or over-spiritualized."—Kay Warren, cofounder of Saddleback Church What happens when loving Jesus doesn't cure you of depression, anxiety, or suicidal thoughts? You might be crushed by shame over your mental illness, only to be told by well-meaning Christians to "choose joy" and "pray more." So you beg God to take away the pain, but nothing eases the ache inside. As darkness lingers and color drains from your world, you're left wondering if God has abandoned you. You just want a way out. But there's hope. In I Love Jesus, But I Want to Die, Sarah J. Robinson offers a healthy, practical, and shame-free guide for Christians struggling with mental illness. With unflinching honesty, Sarah shares her story of battling depression and fighting to stay alive despite toxic theology that made her afraid to seek help outside the church. Pairing her own story with scriptural insights, mental health research, and simple practices, Sarah helps you reconnect with the God who is present in our deepest anguish and discover that you are worth everything it takes to get better. Beautifully written and full of hard-won wisdom, I Love Jesus, But I Want to Die offers a path toward a rich, hope-filled life in Christ, even when healing doesn't look like what you expect.

Alive, Living Within Purpose Random House

The Body of Christ, if we are truly the chosen of God, have experientially and truly chosen to lose our lives in exchange to serve a Risen Savior, Jesus Christ, It as if we are the glove and Christ is the hand inside the glove. If we choose this life, it is the most glorious life you will every experience. However, choosing to live with one foot in the world and one foot in the bible is where most of those who call themselves believers live, so we are caught in the quagmire of the old man and the new, caught in a myriad of worldly thoughts, which causes worldly behaviors, as we read in Romans 6-10 Paul's own struggles. Paul's struggles were before he realized that it was Christ who would deliver him from "this body of death." I've been crucified with Christ, nevertheless I live, yet not I but Christ who lives in me, and the life I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the son of God who loved me and gave Himself for me." We are truly His, paid for with the blood of Christ and his completed sacrifice of Himself. Yes, we ARE! Yet, we lie, we cheat, we find things coming out of our mouth that grieve Holy Spirit. So how do we overcome? This is a "how to" book of my own failures, many sleepless nights with success of my discovery through the leading of the Holy Spirit over the years to pull myself up out of the quicksand of defeat and live a victorious life. I hope it may help some person that is about to give up on Christianity (as we are taught it in the conservative and even Charismatic circles) and the Body of Christ. I too was once in that state, but I have found life through Jesus Christ in letting go of "self" which adds up to all my fears, failures, even successes, depression, anger, bitterness, disobedience and just plain rebellion by clinging, Christ was heard because of His piety, the scripture says, ...to the one who is able to save me from death. Jesus was in like manner tempted, as we all are, but he humbled himself, took on human form, took the form of a servant and was heard because of His understanding that without communication and leaning on His Father, He too, could fail. It was in this way, He was tempted in like manner, just as we are and continue to be....until we come to the place where we recognize that we are completely and wholly needing the Savior to rescue us from the self life. This is the point where true victory can begin....otherwise, we find ourselves walking in our own understanding and analyzing things, instead of becoming as a little child, as we read. "Unless you become as a little child, you shall not enter the Kingdom of Heaven. So, we must understand that truly, "The old man is dead." We then can be reborn....and began to start anew....as a little child, learning a whole new way of relating to life and others.....from a position of giving and of unconditional love, having no agenda.

You are a mom with a special needs child, but maybe you are not feeling special, qualified, nor fearless. Mom, there is something stretching inside of you bigger than your womb. It is purpose. Beyond the external affairs of life, doctor visits, blood draws, tests, etc., this must be birthed from the inside out. You may be at a store, scrolling online, or at a seminar wondering, Is this all motherhood and the Christ life has for me? You may even be just plain tired. Well, let me be your comrade in your journey to maintain, sustain, and thrive in a Christ-centered life with a special needs child. This book is filled with lessons I learned along the way (most through losses and failures but we will get to that later), wisdom straight from God's Word, and actionable worksheets, and tips to empower you to live out the proven life of Jesus. Now there are tons of books about your child's diagnosis, but this is not one of those books. This book is for you, the special daughter God had in mind in this path of motherhood! Be empowered to walk out this lovely, full life ahead. Will you join me?

Dear Heavenly Father, You asked who will worship You. I will worship You for being the True and Living God. I know You are my Creator and my Lord. I thank You for being all wisdom to me. You have guided me in all truth, and I want You to know I appreciate all the things You have done for me. I worship You for being my Healer. You had to show me that You are the God who performs miracles all by yourself. I thank You for healing my body. Through my trials You were by my side. I will worship You for all the things You have done for me. You are all I will ever need. I will put my trust in You because You are my God. Your Son, Jesus Christ, made the ultimate sacrifice, so I would be able to serve You as my God. I will worship your Holy Name, for You are my King and I will serve You with my whole heart.
