The alpha male has something I want, and I'm not above a little blackmail to get it! Renee: I've never been a good girl. Let's just say that trouble always seems to find me. So when my dad's best friend walks in the door, the choice is easy. Kane's got something I want. Something huge. Irresistible. It makes me toss in bed at night. And I'm not above blackmailing him to get it. Kane: The last time I saw Renee, she was just a tiny thing with cute little pigtailed and knee socks. But now, all I can imagine is Renee in a compromised position. It's so wrong to be thinking of my best friend's daughter like this. But when the curvy girl decides to blackmail me, it all goes downhill fast. Because Renee doesn't realize that I'm an OTT alpha male who doesn't play games. And like it or not, I'm going to put my baby in the curvy girl's belly! This naughty story will have you turning the pages for more! Follow the sassy, feisty Renee as she meets her match in the form of her dad's gorgeous older friend from college. Taboo? Yes. A ton of fun? You betcha! No cheating, no cliffhangers, and always a HEA for my readers.

 She's too young. She's my best friend's daughter. Staying away is the right thing to do. But staying away is no longer an option. Her safety is paramount. Especially now that her name is attached to a case of missing girls thanks to her Nancy Drew ways. I'm here to protect her tonight, tomorrow, and always. Badge or not. And I know what else she needs too. She needs tough love, the kind of guidance, and sternness her father couldn't ever provide.

Something I'm more than ready to give her. I will protect her. Because I protect what's mine, and that's exactly what she is. Mine. My little Luna. This is a short, steamy "daddy-lite" romance with some daddy elements, but it is not a spot on ddlg story. No OM / OW drama and no cliffhangers. Always a sweet HEA.

Toddler Coloring Book: Daddy and Me Simon and Schuster
 A father shares hilarious quotations from his young daughter in this heartwarming compilation. Single father Matthew Carroll didn't always have someone to share in his frequent laughter and incredulity at the things said by his young daughter, Morgan. So he wrote down her best quotes to share with family and friends but soon discovered anyone could appreciate her pronouncements on topics such as sharing food, falling in love, growing up, where babies come from, and the dietary preferences of fairies. Can I Sit on Your Lap While You're Pooping? is the compilation of the hilarious, crazy, and touching things said by a little girl, but it's also the irresistible documentation of the love between a parent and child.

 While many of us grew up in a home with siblings and two loving parents, there are those, particularly in today's society, who grow up in single-parent homes. Charlie is a young boy being raised in a single-parent home who has questions about why his father does not live with him. His mother lovingly does the best she can to put his mind at ease by showing him he has an entire family that cares about him. My Friend Tommy Has a Daddy and a Mommy explains to children in an entertainingly poetic format that they are loved by both parents although there may only be one parent present in the home. I read the book to my grandsons and they asked me to read it again. They thought it was a happy story and I think so too. The book is still on my coffee table and my grandson, due to come in the door any minute, will go straight to the book and ask me to read it to him. We love it. Thank you for putting such an important message into such sweet words.

I was with her twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week for the last ten months of her life. The conversations we had were priceless. The promises I made to her I am still fulfilling. Dawn definitely made me a stronger person. She taught me so many things about life, about myself, but also about others. After she was diagnosed, Dawn saw things as they were and not as she wished them to be, and slowly but surely she began putting things in order. Yes, this cancer is going to end my life here on earth several years sooner than if I didn't have it. Though it won't take away what I have. I have a loving father and best friend. I have Cathy, my wonderful mother by marriage. I have my mother and Kristie who I love so very much. I have the two most beautiful children in the world in Tyler and Jordan. I have peace with God and myself. I also have something that is so important to me: I have love from all those I just mentioned. They love me. So you see, cancer didn't win. It can never take what I have. Please understand that I haven't given up on a miracle nor have I given up on life here on earth. I won't live my life waiting on a miracle. I'm going to live my life as if I don't need a miracle. I won't live my life in fear of death. I'm going to live my life as if I have nothing to fear. Yes, I will do whatever it takes to live. I'm going to do my best to do what it takes to be happy not depressed. So yes, I hate that I have cancer, although I love my life and those who are in it and make it what it is.

This is book 1 of My Dad's Friend. I stared, I gulped, my heart skipped a beat, my stomach twisted and I can feel the butterflies, linger and a cold chill ran and traveled through my vein, flowing through my blood like lava. The man before me was heavenly, I could barely look away. From the way his dark grey orbs stared back at me to the way his jet black hair fell spiking on his shoulder, my whole body shuddered uncontrollably from the sensation growing in my system. My eyes trailed up to his sharp jawline, his straight pointed nose, his tick, long eyebrows and eyelashes to his sinful, tempting, luscious lips. Consciously, I ran over my lips but the sound of my dad clearing his throat pulled me out from my trace as a slightly jerked, feeling electrified. "Tristan, I went with you to meet my friend, Dr. Sean" My dad introduced the sexy, demigod man with that sinful body of his. I quivered again. "Sean, meet my son, Tristan" Dad introduced me but my eyes remained cemented on him and I could swear I saw a spark in those dark orbs but it was gone as soon as it came, making me doubt if I really saw it. I watched him run him over his reddish, luring lips while he ran down my body, making my insides burn with a sudden fire I had never felt before...and then, he spoke... "Nice to meet you kitten" And from that moment on, I knew it was over for my heart. From that moment I knew I was in love with MY FATHER'S FRIEND!

Have you ever asked, "God, why me?" Christians often share of the goodness of God, his grace, his mercy, his sacrifice, and his unconditional love. When they share the trials and tribulations they experience, they share as if their faith and belief in God were unwavering. Often, Christians lack transparency; they suppress the truth of their spiritual struggles when sharing with others their relationship with God. He Had to Break Me to Bless Me is about the personal journey of a Christian woman that lost her faith and belief in God following personal tragedies in her life. She questioned why she had to endure such pain and heartache. Where was God in the midst of her suffering? Why did God allow bad things to happen to good people? During the darkest times in her life, she was angry with God and felt as if God had robbed and cheated her, leaving her lonely and abandoned. Each chapter uncovers her emotional journey from being lost to being restored. Through her journey, she explores and exposes how the question of "God, why me?" is answered; while challenging believers to engage in a personal inventory of their preparedness to enter the kingdom of God. She introduces nonbelievers to Jesus Christ by sharing her testimony of spiritual immaturity to spiritual wholeness. From her personal journey of restoration, individuals will gain an understanding that there is a blessing in all trials and tribulations. All that is endured in life is according to God's divine purpose and plan for your life. After reading this book, you will have renewed faith and hope, realizing that God must break you to bless you and the blessing is for you to glorify God.
