Esperanza thought she'd always live a privileged life on her family's ranch in Mexico. She'd always have fancy dresses, a beautiful home filled with servants, and Mama, Papa, and Abuelita to care for her. But a sudden tragedy forces Esperanza and Mama to flee to California and settle in a Mexican farm labor camp. Esperanza isn't ready for the hard work, financial struggles brought on by the Great Depression, or lack of acceptance she now faces. When Mama gets sick and a strike for better working conditions threatens to uproot their new life, Esperanza must find a way to rise above her difficult circumstances -because Mama's life, and her own, depend on it.

 and Ralphie

Ratso's dad, Big Lou, always says that there are two kinds of people: those who are tough and those who are soft. Louie and Ralphie are tough, tough, tough, just like Big Lou, and they're going to prove it. But every time they try to show just how tough they are, the Ratso brothers end up accidentally doing good deeds instead. What'll Big Lou do when he finds out they've been acting like softies all over the Big City? Perfect for emerging and reluctant readers, this clever and surprisingly warmhearted chapter book shows that being tough all the time can be really tough. The re-enslavement of black americans from the civil war to World War Two Sourcebooks, Inc. Through letters, notes, report cards, matchbook covers, and telegrams, a novel set in the 1940s follows the sometimes underhanded efforts of Joey Margolis, a fatherless twelve year old, to persuade New York Giants third baseman Charlie Banks to be his role model. Reprint. Large 6 X 9 Notebook Blank and Lined with 110+ Pages (Notebooks for Kids) Scholastic Inc. Chronicle your travels and detail your camping experiences with the RV Camping Journal that covers the United States and Canada. Don't know where to begin? Don't worry, this 8.5" x 11" logbook contains two pages with prompts for each trip and campsite. On the left-hand page, you'll note campground specifics related to amenities, address, and more. Then you'll fill the right-hand page with personal details including your actual arrival and departure date, wildlife you encountered, and people you met. When the book is open, you'll see all of the details of your campground adventure at a glance on the two-page spread. The 106 campground logging pages will allow you to record the details of 53 camping trips. You can literally move to a new campsite every week and still not fill the book in a year. In short, you'll log your memories as you log the miles. See where you've been at a glance. The title page in this book looks like the cover but is shown in black and white on purpose. Pick up some markers, crayons or colored pencils and color in the States and Provinces that you've visited. The map covers the contiguous United States and Canada. Your partially-colored title page will serve as a visual representation of where you've been and where you lovely gift for any fox lover on your gift giving list! Slavery by Another Name Scholastic Inc. A Pulitzer Prize-winning history of the mistreatment of black Americans. In this 'precise and eloquent work' - as described in its Pulitzer Prize citation - Douglas A. Blackmon brings to light one of the most shameful chapters in American history - an 'Age of Neoslavery' that thrived in the aftermath of the Civil War through the dawn of World War II. Using a vast record of original documents and personal narratives, Blackmon unearths the lost stories of slaves and their descendants who journeyed into freedom after the Emancipation Proclamation and then back into the shadow of involuntary servitude thereafter. By turns moving, sobering and shocking, this unprecedented account reveals these stories, the companies that profited the most from neoslavery, and the insidious legacy of racism that reverberates today. Encyclopedia of Endocrine Diseases Independently Published QUALITY MADE KIDS SURVIVAL JOURNAL Survival Journal for kids that love creating a list to go camping, fishing, participate in sporting events, writing down emergency of the things that matter most.”—Dash ka Slater, author of The 57 Bus “Brilliantly told in verse, readers will love Ken Sparks.” —Patricia Reilly Giff, two-time Newbery Honor winner “Lyrical, terrifying, and even at times funny. A richly detailed account of a little-known event in World War II.” —Kirkus Reviews “Middle grade Titanic fans, here’s your next read.” —BCCB “An edge-of-your-seat survival tale.” —School Library Journal (starred review) A Junior Library Guild Selection A 2019 Golden Kite Middle Grade Fiction Award Winner In the tradition of The War That Saved My Life and Stella By Starlight, this poignant novel in verse based on true events tells the story of a boy’s harrowing experience on a lifeboat after surviving a torpedo attack during World War II. With

Nazi bombing London every night, it’s time for thirteen-year-old Ken to escape. He suspects his stepmother is glad to see him go, but his dad says he’s one of the lucky ones—one of ninety boys and girls to ship out aboard the SS City of Benares to safety in Canada. Life aboard the luxury ship is grand—nine-course meals, new friends, and a life far from the bombs, rations, and his stepmum’s glare. And after five days at sea, the ship's officers announce that they're out of danger. They're wrong. Late that night, an explosion hurls Ken from his bunk. They've been hit. Torpedoed! The Benares is sinking fast. Terrified, Ken scrambles aboard Lifeboat 12 with five other boys. Will they get away? Will they survive? Award-winning author Susan Hood brings this little-known World War II story to life in a riveting novel of courage, hope, and compassion. Based on true events and real people, Lifeboat 12 is about believing in one another, knowing that only by banding together will we have any chance to survive. Shipwreck Createspace Independent Publishing Platform Let Your Imagination Run Wild with This Creative Fox Doodle Journal Notebook for Girls boys ,
